Interesting Letter From Lieut. F. Scott

North British Station Hotel,
Glasgow, Scotland.

Dear People:

I just received your letter and as I have been moving around for a couple of weeks have been out of touch with my mail, so you may imagine I had very interesting reading for a few hours. One letter was of particular interest. That was from the Medical Board giving me another week's leave unrequested and I don't feel like going to work yet I'm satisfied to take the extra week. This gives me until the 23rd of November.

I wrote you from Alford, since then I went further north to Elgin where a battle took place in his place for a day's shooting. Then on to Inverness and further north to Invergordon where some of the fleet is stationed. Here I saw the Iron Duke, King George V. Monmouth etc. and they looked very brave indeed. The naval officers at Inverness sent me a notice that I was an honorary member of their mess during

Weddings

Quain—Snell Ball—Snell

On Wednesday, Jan. 24th the home of Mr. J. W. Snell, a highly respected farmer of Spring Valley, witnessed a very pretty ceremony, the occasion being the double wedding of his daughters, Miss Estella Mary to Mr. Wm. Henry Quain of Sundridge; and Mildred Irene to Mr. Henry Harold Bull of Oyen.

The ceremony was consummated at high noon, to the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus. Miss Estella entered the room, doubly attired and leaning on the arm of her father who presented her to the fortunate groom. Her bridesmaid was Miss Hallman of Acadia Valley, and the groomsmen Mr. Rupert Snell.

Mr. Snell then retired and returned with Miss Mildred Irene equally charmingly gowned and gave her to Mr. Bull. Miss Annabelle her sister acted as bridesmaid, and Mr. George Milton her brother, as groomsmen.

After the knot had been securely tied by Rev. Webster of Oyen, and the happy couples had received the generous felicitations of friends, the wedding breakfast, a sumptuous feast, was partaken of. The health of the brides was proposed by Mr. Robinson of Oyen in a few choice words and suitably responded to by Messrs. Quain and Bull respectively.

Following breakfast a pleasant socializing was enjoyed when songs, recitations, guitar and musical selections were the order of the programme.

Outside the family circle the following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. and Miss Hallman of Acadia Valley, and Mr. and Mrs. Robinson of Oyen.

The best wishes of a great number of friends go with these happy couples to their new homes.

The following is a list of presents:

China dinner set, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Snell; dozen Silver Desert Spoon and Berry Spoon, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Patterson; silver Gypsy Lace Sugar Shell, Coal Meat Fork, Pickle Fork and Butter Knife, Miss Bill Snell; two sets Cut Glass Popper and Salt Shakers and Mustard Pot, Mr. Geo. Snell; six Silver Knives and Forks, Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Jaquet; Mantle Clock, Mr. T. J. Smith; six Silver Knives and Forks, Mr. Wm. Snell; dozen Silver Teaspoons, Mr. John Snell; Carving Set, Mr. R. S. Snell; Cut Glass Water Set, Mr. Patterson; Cut Glass Berry Bowl, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Robinson; Pierced Silver Casserole, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hallman; Pierced Silver Butter Dish and Knife, Miss Edie May Hallman; Cut Glass Berry Bowl, Mr. John Stewart.

KERR—ROSS

A quiet wedding was solemnized on Wednesday, January 10th, by the Rev. Dr. Martin at the home of Mr. Alex. Ross, North Easthope, when his daughter Anna C. M. was united in marriage to Dr. John P. Kerr of Oyen, Alberta, son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Kerr of Mornington, Ont. Dr. and Mrs. Kerr will reside in Oyen.—The Perth County Herald, Ontario.

Soldiers' Taxes

We notice in the minutes of the last meeting of Council of the R. M. of Bertan that the following resolution was passed: That as the taxpayers followed by the 1915 Council to abate soldiers' taxes of enlisted men amounts collectively to between four and five thousand dollars, be it resolved that soldiers' taxes be collected as usual.

Now we feel that these taxes taken by the Bertan Council show a very unpatriotic spirit, and would, we think, show a bad example to the individual. The soldiers' taxes in Bertan district amount to between four and five thousand dollars. These soldiers are fighting for our protection and the large number speaks highly for the patriotic spirit of the district. However, the above resolution would lead one to think that the cream of the district had gone to fight, and that those left at home are too small even to contribute to the soldier's estate.

It is only right that the soldiers should be protected, and it is also right that the value of their property should be conserved, and even enhanced by those at home. The farmer who stays at home is often benefiting by the war, for which his soldier neighbor is paying so dearly. He stays at home and secures unusually good prices for his grain and stock, while his neighbors, having the arms of his country and saw how necessary it was for him to sacrifice everything and perhaps even his life in order that he who remain behind may continue to enjoy the privileges which freedom affords. Now if the Municipality of Bertan find it impossible to carry the burden any longer they should appeal to the Provincial or Federal governments for a refund for the amount of taxes on soldiers' property.

The White Ensign

The fact that we enjoy the liberty of the oceans is entirely due to the ungrudging self-sacrifice on the part of our seamen. They are the men who, in the face of great difficulties and terrible dangers, successfully fought for us, and won by their grit the mastery of the seas. Naturally this was followed by conquest after conquest on land, thus gradually bringing into being the British Empire as we know it today.

Now, the men who did all this were not super-human, far from it. They were drawn from plain every-day people, such as one is accustomed to converse with any day. Young men often imagine service in the Navy to be something especially trying and difficult. It is not so. Any young fellow with average brains can and will make good after a normal period of training. Once having tasted the romance of sea life, he would never give up his interest in the varied occupations.

Now, the point is this. Many of us consider that matter what is happening on the sea must be quite alright because the British Navy is on the job. This is a charming compliment to our Fleet, but has it ever occurred to you that ships cannot be worked without men? The expansion of our navy has been enormous during this present war, that the Admiralty resources are taxed to the uttermost in the effort to obtain enough men. This dangerous feeling, that the Navy is sufficient unto itself, has been the cause of much anxiety in its relation to the task of securing recruits. Young men, make no mistake. By not joining the navy, you are playing with fate. Our armies may swell to many millions, but all the armies of earth would avail us nothing with out right to meet disaster. "Our Navy is strong," you say. Granted, but where is it, give it sufficient supplies of men, what then? Let all who can take heed by this. Come forward and offer yourself for service in the Fleet. If you lack experience, don't let that stop you. There are many things you can do as efficiently as a trained seaman.

Recruits are now being asked for by the Royal Naval Canadian Volunteer Reserve, for service on Canadian Coast Patrols. This Corps was the first unit called out for active service in the Dominion of Canada.

The pay is $1.05 a day for Ordinary seamen, $1.10 for Able seamen. Separation allowance $30.00 per month.

We must have hundreds of men in order to cope with grave problems now arising on both Canadian coasts.

Call at the Naval Recruiting Office of Calgary, Medicine Hat or Edmonton.

When you feel gloomy and depressed and cannot sleep, suspect your nerves. When you shrink from company and would rather be alone you are losing confidence in yourself, and that can only mean weak nerves. It is not natural to be solitary and unsocial, it shows clearly that vitality has become reduced, and the nervous system correspondingly weakened. But take Dr. Cassell's Tablets for such a condition and you will be astonished at the results, astonished at the bright new health you will gain, at the splendid vigour and vitality they will give you.

Mr. Poole, a business man of 60, Infirmary Road, Sheffield, England, says:—"I had lost all confidence in myself, and was actually afraid to meet people. The sleepiness and activity I had formerly possessed were gone. My digestion was feeble, and sleeplessness was terrible. But when I commenced taking Dr. Cassell's Tablets I soon felt better." Now I am as well and fit as any man of my age."

By far the most interesting spot in Scotland seems to be Sterling which is the gateway to the Highlands. The castle stands on a high rock and has been the castle of kings and rainies of Bruce, Douglas, Wallace and Queen Mary. From the castle a splendid view of the "windings" of the Forth may be had. The river almost periodically dries up during summer time. Other points of interest are the Wallace monument which stands on another high ridge, the old Sterling bridge, the old Cathedral which shows where the shot from the castle wounded King James VI, and the castle by the English.

A young lady who owned a horse and turnout drove me out to view the field of Bannockburn. There is erected a large cairn with Bruce's battle flag on top.

I came over to Glasgow last night and today was in the museum a few minutes. There is a magnificent collection and also a beautiful art gallery.

To-morrow I'm going to have a look at Ireland. It is only two hours by boat so I might as well see it, although I hardly expect to stay long.

Coldest Snap This Winter

C.N. Trains Held Up Four Days

Owing to the severe cold snap which set in last Saturday, the traffic on the Goose Lake line has been practically tied up. The eastbound train due here early Sunday morning, has not arrived yet, and is stuck in a snow drift a short distance west of Oyen. The Sunday's train going west pulled in here about ten o'clock Monday morning and is still waiting here until the road west is clear. The cold weather still continues and this morning the thermometer registered forty below zero with a wind blowing.
